A Distinction. In discussing the question, "Has Christianity Benefitted Woman, there should be made some discrimination between the church and chris tionity. The real spirit of the teachings of Christ is always in perfect accord with the furtherance of all kindness and perfect justice, irrespective of persons. He never made any inraigned, we have no right to make $1.00. Christ's teachings responsible. The selfishness of man, and not the teachings of Christ, are responsible. No worthy leader but has degenerate followers who call themselves by His name but are not of Him in spirit or in deed. Humanity to man, tenderness to woman, Justice to all is the direct outgrowth of Christ's teaching. That men have held to the advantages of their superior strength, and to the vantage ground given them by precedent and custom-thus doing constant and irreparable injustice to woman and consequently to the

"Whatever influences have been active in the abolition of slavery, in securing political rights, free government, protection of children and the poor, in bringing knowledge within the reach of all, and thereby spreading abroad juster and more humane principles of conduct and have also wrought for the welfare of woman; and it is not necessary to point out how intimately all this is associated with the social action of the Christian

The women of Ottumwa, ia., pre-The women of Ottumwa, Ia., presented to the city government a petition bearing 792 names of women asking the enforcement of the dramshop laws. The council passed a resolution that the prayers of the petitioners be complied with. But the mayor declared, in a written speech, that it was not his duty. The women were not voters. — Manistee Mandard.

Every American admits that every human being is endowed with certain inalienable rights-such as "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness"and it follows as night the day that every human being has a right to the means necessary to secure these results. On what principle of Republicanism has a minority of the people of the United States monopolized to themselves the rights of hands would be useless, which were the whole? Where under the Declaration of Independence does the male citizen find authority for depriving women citizens of their inalienable rights? The code of laws under which women live is far more unjust and tyraunical than that which goaded our fathers into the bitter, bloody struggle with the mother country more than a century ago. The mothers of the Revolution bravely shared dangers, labor, loss, persecution and death, but even then were denied the right of suffrage, though from Abigail Adams down to Elizabeth Cleveland, affected. Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Since then Mr. LELAND has recommended AVER'S SARSAPABULLS in many similar eases, and he has never yet heard of its fail ure to effect a radical cure.

Some years ago one of Mr. LELANT'S farm laborers benised his leg. Owing to the had state of his blood, an ugly scrofulous swelling or lump appeared on the injured limb. Hor rible itching of the skin, with burning and darting pains through the lump, made life almost intolerable. The log became enerdischarging great quantities of extremely offensive matter. No treatment was of any gonil mutil the man, by Mr. LELANI'S direction, was supplied with Aven's Sansara-BELLA, which allayed the pain and irritation, healed the sorm, removed the swelling, and sempletely restored the limb to use. Mr. LELAND has personally used

Ayer's Sarsaparilla for Rheumatism, with entire success; and, after eareful observation, declares that, in his belief, there is no medicine in the world squal to it for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, the effects of high living, Salt

Rheum, Sores, Eruptions, and all the various forms of blood diseases. We have Mr. LELAND'S permission to invite all who may desire further evidence in regard to the extraordinary curative powers of ATEN'S BARSAPARILLA to see him person ally either at his mammoth Ocean Hotel, Long Branch, or at the popular Leiand Hotel, Broadway, 27th and 28th Streets, New York.
